SUSSEX STAKES – MAIN CONTENDERS

Poetic Flare

Trainer: Jim Bolger
Owner: Mrs J S Bolger
Jockey: Kevin Manning

Poetic Flare looks the to be the outstanding 1600m specialist of his generation having won the 2000 Guineas on Newmarket's Rowley Mile Course and then bounced back from a narrow defeat in the Irish 2,000 Guineas to take Royal Ascot's St James's Palace Stakes last time out. It's true he did disappoint in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp when finishing 6th but that race came just 15 days after his Newmarket triumph and clearly came too soon. This will be the first time that he has faced his elders but he is still an obvious main player as he bids for his third Group 1 success over this distance this season. He's progressed with every run this year and could well make further progress here, whilst the ground should hold no fears having already won on all types of going in his eight-race career.

Snow Lantern

Trainer: Richard Hannon
Owner: Rockcliffe Stud
Jockey: Jamie Spencer

Raced only once as a juvenile, Snow Lantern has quickly developed into a very smart filly this year, as could have been expected on her pedigree being by Frankel out of a four-time Group 1 winner at up to 1600m. A Newbury maiden winner at the start of the year, she was subsequently moved up in grade highlighting her potential with a second to Alcohol Free (beaten 1½L) in Royal Ascot's Group 1 Coronation Stakes (1600m). On her most recent start she went one better in the Group 1 Falmouth Stakes (1600m) reversing the Royal Ascot form with Alcohol Free showing an impressive turn of foot after it had looked for a few strides as if she wasn't going to get the run of the race.

Alcohol Free

Trainer: Andrew Balding
Owner: J C Smith
Jockey: Oisin Murphy

Rounded off her juvenile campaign with a victory in the Group 1 Cheveley Park (1200m) at Newmarket last September looking every inch a smart performer and that impression has been enhanced this year with two Group-race successes. The biggest of those came at Royal Ascot in the Group 1 Coronation Stakes (1600m) where she improved on her fifth in the 1000 Guineas, travelling much better than at Newmarket. She did have the run of the race at Ascot though when she defeated Snow Lantern and that filly duly reversed the placings when the pair met in the Group 1 Falmouth Stakes (1600m) at Newmarket's July Course, trying to make all only to be swamped in the closing stages. This will be the first time that she takes on the boys.

Order Of Australia

Trainer: Aiden O'Brien
Owner: D Smith & Mrs J Magnier
 & M Tabor & Mrs A M O'Brien
Jockey: Ryan Moore

One of six older horses in the field, he looks to be the pick of those aged four and over trying to hold off the younger generation. Unsuccessful as a juvenile he blossomed as a three-year-old winning on three occasions with his crowning glory a victory in the Breeders' Cup Mile (1600m), his first success in Group 1 company having spent all year racing over greater distances. Looked to need his comeback run in the Group 1 Queen Anne (1600m) at Royal Ascot when finishing down the field, but proved he was back to near his best when trying 1400m for the first time at the Curragh last time taking the Group 2 Minstrel Stakes. He made all on that occasion and it wouldn't be a surprise to see similar tactics used here.

Paul Mulrennan's verdict

With the level of form that POETIC FLARE has already attained it's clear that he's going to be very hard to beat having thrived on his racing this year already winning two Group 1's and impressing last time at Royal Ascot with how he settled proceedings in the closing stages. If he's capable of that level of form the two fillies SNOW LANTERN and ALCOHOL FREE who are one all in their meetings this year are going to have to step up their level of form once again. Richard Fahey's longer-priced runners have been placed in this race before and his SPACE TRAVELLER could be of interest.

THE RUNNING ORDER

Race 1: Unibet '15 To Go' Handicap (2400m)

Race 2: Whispering Angel Oak Tree Stakes (Group 3)
(Fillies & Mares) (1400m)

Race 3: Markel Molecomb Stakes (Group 3) (1000m)

Race 4: Qatar Sussex Stakes (Group 1) (1600m)

Race 5: British Stallion Studs Alice Keppel EBF Fillies' Conditions Stakes (1000m)

Race 6: British EBF Premier Fillies' Handicap (2000m)

Race 7: World Pool Handicap (1400m)

OUR GUIDE TO THE REST OF THE ACTION

Race 1 - Unibet '15 To Go' Handicap (2400m)

Trainer Mark Johnston has a good record in this event having landed the prize four times in the last nine years and once again he's well represented fielding a team of four. Perhaps the pick of his quartet is GLEN AGAIN who has so far gained two successes in 2021 and has run well in defeat since in three events at around this distance. The King George V Stakes Handicap (2400m) run at Royal Ascot last month may hold the key to this though with SISKANY (4th) and NAGANO (6th) shaping better than the bare result with slight preference for the former for the Charlie Appleby barn who are having a fine season. As one would expect in a three-year-old handicap, there are a host of other improving types, with KOLOSI making his debut in this sphere of particular interest, along with PLEASANT MAN and PIED PIPER.

1 Siskany 2 Nagano 3 Glen Again

Race 3 - Markel Molecomb Stakes (Group 3) (1000m)

Some speedy youngsters are set to clash here with only MOJOMAKER having had experience of this tricky downhill 1000m course. A winner at Wetherby (1100m) on his second racecourse start FEARBY improved markedly showing a blistering turn of foot to leave his rivals standing over Sandown's 1000m course last time forging clear to win by 5L. That Listed race has proved a good trial for this contest and he has leading claims. CHIPOTLE is the most experienced of this field winning three of his five races but he suffered some in-running travails last time out at Newbury and comes here on a recovery mission although the ground may not be ideal. KABOO is the only non-winner in the field and he has ground to make up on Fearby from last time while ARMOR similarly has turn around an earlier defeat by Chipotle. CHIMGAN is an interesting contender who lacks experience having only run once but he was well supported on his Nottingham debut and created a positive impression with the promise of more to come.

1 Fearby 2 Chimgan 3 Chipotle

Race 2 - Whispering Angel Oak Tree Stakes (Group 3) (Fillies & Mares) (1400m)

A wide open event where a low draw may well be an advantage with such a big field and it's not hard to see some trouble in-running. Of those amongst the low numbers SACRED whose yard have won two of the last three renewals of this looks a likely candidate after she failed to stay the 1600m trip in the 1000 Guineas, she is capable of some smart form. VADREAM is another three-year-old to consider despite her only having one win to her name she does have some solid placed form to her name in this grade. VALERIA MESSALINA went close in his race last year and she warmed up for this year's contest with a very sound second at Group 3 level in Ireland last time and she should go close again. LAVENDERS BLUE, ISABELLA GILES and HIGHFIELD PRINCESS all have claims at this level but none of the trio are particularly well drawn.

1 Vadream 2 Sacred 3 Valeria Messalina

Race 5 - British Stallion Studs Alice Keppel EBF Fillies' Conditions Stakes (1000m)

Chances can be given to a few although the two with course experience should take precedence and preference is given to CANONIZED who has already won over the 1000m trip on her second start before adding two more victories to her record over this sort of distance. FLOTUS was well supported when making a winning debut over 1200m here in May and got herself back on track last time after flopping at Royal Ascot in the Albany Stakes over 1200m, this will be her first try at this distance though. VERTIGINOUS has yet to win but improved on her debut with a creditable fifth in the Group 2 Queen Mary (1000m) at Royal Ascot last time. Both ILLUSTRATING and ANADORA ran respectable races at Royal Ascot in the Queen Mary and Albany Stakes respectively although their overall form has yet to quite match that of Canonized and Flotus.

1 Canonized 2 Flotus 3 Vertiginous

OUR GUIDE TO THE REST OF THE ACTION

Race 6 - British EBF Premier Fillies' Handicap (2000m)

Taking on older horses for the first time on her latest start ACHELOIS bounced back to winning ways winning her first handicap in good style over 1600m at Ascot winning comfortably and with her useful pedigree she has scope to continuing on an upward curve stepping up in distance. TIMELESS SOUL another of the three-year-olds in the field found life tougher under a penalty and quicker ground conditions last time but she may well appreciate this softer ground and her first taste of handicap company. PERCY'S PRIDE took her time to get off the mark but has won her last two and although she can look a little quirky (flashes her tail) she does see out her races in game fashion. The ground may be a little too testing for PRADO who has flopped on this ground before but conditions will hold no fears for topweight FREYJA who is useful having won three times last year but does remain vulnerable to less-exposed types.

1 Achelois 2 Percy's Pride 3 Freyja

Race 7 - World Pool Handicap (1400m)

A typically tough and challenging handicap to end the card with once again luck in-running sure to play a part. FOX CHAMPION has made a solid start for his new yard. TINTORETTO proved much sharper in first-time blinkers when winning over C&D last time (sole C&D winner in the field) and he's nicely drawn again in his bid to follow up and despite being higher in the weights holds a sound chance. If the ground continues to dry that will help the chance of SUNSET BREEZE who rattled off a handicap hat-trick last year and looked to be returning to near his best last time out when narrowly beaten at Newcastle (1400m). Others to consider are the well-drawn BE PREPARED, DESERT DOCTOR, for whom the booking of champion jockey Oisin Murphy catches the eye, and DUTCH DECOY.

1 Tintoretto 2 Desert Doctor 3 Sunset Breeze

Goodwood Statistics:

TOP JOCKEYS AT GOODWOOD (OVER THE PAST FIVE SEASONS)

Jockey	Rides	Winners
Oisin Murphy	262	42
Jim Crowley	233	40
William Buick	106	29
Ryan Moore	158	27
Silvestre De Sousa	180	26

Having already recorded 74 winners this year WILLIAM BUICK will be looking forward to Thursday's book of rides as he bids to enhance his not only his seasonal total but his Goodwood also. Very much the pick of his rides would be Breeders' Cup Heroine AUDARYA who bids for Group 1 glory in the Nassau Stakes in a race that looks to be a real cracker. YIBIR gives Buick another fine chance of a Group race success in the Gordon Stakes while he has a three good handicap rides in the shape of QAADER, MAYFAIR STROLL and WHENTHEDEALISDONE. His book of six rides is completed by WILDERNESS GIRL who is well drawn in the maiden fillies' event over 1400m.

TOP TRAINERS AT GOODWOOD (OVER THE PAST FIVE SEASONS)

Trainer	Runs	Winners
Mark Johnston	330	46
Andrew Balding	202	30
William Haggas	138	28
Richard Hannon	322	27
John Gosden	116	25

ANDREW BALDING is steadily building his profile as a trainer to follow at Goodwood. Balding fields six runners on Wednesday to form a strong team with perhaps the best waiting until last as ACHELOIS bids to follow up her Ascot handicap win after defeating her elders last time and back against her own sex she looks to sound chance. BOUNCE THE BLUES, NYMPHADORA and ALCOHOL FREE all give Balding a shot at the Group class events although all three will need to build on their last starts. RECOVERY RUN ran a fair race last time and a repeat gives him an outside chance in a tough opening handicap while FRANKELLA will appreciate the ease in grade.

TOP OWNERS AT GOODWOOD (OVER THE PAST FIVE SEASONS)

Owner	Runs	Winners
Shadwell Stud Co	106	24
Godolphin	112	20
Juddmonte	49	14
Hamdan bin Mohammed al Maktoum	82	12
Qatar Racing Limited	40	8

GODOLPHIN have had a stunning season overall winning big races almost at will and they will be looking to improve their Goodwood record over the next few days although they don't have that many runners. SISKANY gives them a fair chance of landing the opening handicap on Wednesday having suffered all sort of trouble in-running when finishing fourth in a hot Royal Ascot handicap. YIBIR bounced back back to form last time under more patient tactics and gives his owners a shot at Group-race success in the Gordon Stakes. He has looked more straightforward since being gelded.

Qatar Sussex Stakes – Key Trends

NASSAU STAKES – MAIN CONTENDERS

Audarya

Trainer: James Fanshawe
Owner: Mrs A M Swinburn
Jockey: William Buick

Now five years old Audarya has improved with age progressing from winning an all-weather handicap over 2000m at Newcastle in August of last year to overcome some considerable rises in class when taking two Group 1 events abroad at Deauville and Keeneland. Starting at big prices on both occasions she proved herself a smart performer over distances of around 2000m. Those Group race wins last year came against her own sex but lost no caste in defeat in her return to action when taking on mixed company in the Prince Of Wales's Stakes (2000m) at Royal Ascot. Only beaten ¾L there by Love that return gave her an excellent platform to launch an assault on races such as this and she's a leading contender for this prize.

Lady Bowthorpe

Trainer: William Jarvis
Owner: Ms E L Banks
Jockey: Kieran Shoemark

A consistent and game mare it's very rare that this daughter of Nathaniel doesn't run her race and her attitude has seen her placed at Group 1 level. She may in fact have a race of this quality and kudos within her grasp if everything falls right which so far in the hasn't quite happened and that was very much the case with her recent fourth to Snow Lantern in the Falmouth Stakes (1600m). A winner over 1800m on her first outing this year in the Group 2 Dahlia Stakes she's run with credit since in three Group races over 1600m. This will be her first try at this trip and she looks a little more exposed than her main rivals having had 15 starts, with the stamina and slight class doubts she may once again been destined for another placed effort.

Joan Of Arc

Trainer: Aidan O'Brien
Owner: Derrick Smith & Mrs John Magnier & Michael Tabor
Jockey: Ryan Moore

One of two runners from the Aidan O'Brien yard she's also one of four three-year olds who make up the majority of the field and have won seven of the last ten renewals of this race. It's fair to say that Joan Of Arc has progressed from run-to-run during this season with her two most recent starts setting the standard that she now aspires to. The first of those saw her just touched off by stablemate Empress Josephine in a heavy ground Irish 1000 Guineas (1600m) when finishing second having been caught late on. She regained her poise going one better last time out at Chantilly in the Group 1 Prix De Diane (2000m) taking that race in tenacious style having found plenty for pressure in the closing stages. That was her first attempt at this trip but she appeared to relish the test and whatever ground this is run on won't be a worry for this daughter of Galileo.

Empress Josephine

Trainer: Aidan O'Brien
Owner: Mrs John Magnier & Michael Tabor & Derrick Smith
Jockey: Frankie Dettori

Empress Josephine gives trainer Aidan O'Brien a second string to his bow in this competitive Group 1 and she can't be left out of the equation. Unraced as a juvenile she made a winning start to her career at Naas in March when taking a 19-runner maiden over 1600m in testing conditions. Beaten in two subsequent races she found a large measure of improvement to land the Irish 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh (1600m) overcoming a poor run throughout the race to lead close home touching off Joan Of Arc in the process. Disappointed on her latest start when well beaten in the Group 1 Coronation Stakes at Royal Ascot with her finishing effort being not matching that of her previous race.

Paul Mulrennan's verdict

This race has gone to Ireland in four of the last six years with Aidan O'Brien successful in 2016 and 2017. With Snow Lantern heading to the Sussex Stakes on Wednesday instead, one major obstacle has been removed for the O'Brien duo, of which JOAN OF ARC looks the pick on her recent win in France, where the step up in trip really suited her. She appears to be still improving, she handles any ground and this test would appear to be what she needs now. Breeders' Cup heroine AUDARYA can't be left out of the equation, especially as she made a top-class comeback at Royal Ascot last time.

Racing TVi 1-2-3:

Race 7: World Pool Handicap (1000m)

OUR GUIDE TO THE REST OF THE ACTION

Race 1 - Unibet '15 To Go' Handicap (2000m)

For the third day running the card starts with a competitive handicap with plenty of improving and lightly-raced types amongst the field. Mark Johnston who always has his team well primed for this meeting especially in the handicap has supplied the winner in three of the last eight years so his quintet of runners must be respected. The pick of the five could well be MR EXCELLENCY winner of his last two starts over this trip at a lower level but deserving of his chance here especially with all his stablemates running poorly last time although runners from the Johnston yard are known to bounce back quickly. AERION POWER suffered from jockey error last time when clear and eased down prematurely to get caught close home. TARAASHOQ makes his handicap debut and if inexperience doesn't hinder him he looks a likely improver along with ALFAADHEL although he did disappoint on soft ground last time.

1 Aerion Power 2 Taraashoq 3 Mr Excellency

Race 3 - John Pearce Racing Gordon Stakes (Group 3) (2400m)

Charlie Appleby and Aidan O'Brien are two trainers that have had past success in this race which serves as a trial for the final Classic of the year – the St Leger. O'Brien's two runners (he had three entered) SIR LUCAN and WORDSWORTH ran against each other at Navan (2600m) in May with the former gaining the verdict by a neck. He hasn't run since but his vanquished stablemate that day has producing a trio of placed efforts in a Group 2 and latterly in a pair of Group 1 events although he was beaten 6L last time by an impressive winner. That run though would stand comparison with anything any of his rivals have produced. YIBIR from the Appleby stable looked better than ever when scoring at this level last time at Newmarket (2600m) under new hold-up tactics. The Derby fifth THIRD REALM, having handled the undulations at Lingfield the time before, looked ill at ease around Epsom so the undulations here are a minor worry.

1 Wordsworth 2 Sir Lucan 3 Yibir

Race 2 - Unibet Richmond Stakes (Group 2) (1200m)

Clive Cox has taken the last two renewals of this and tries for the hat-trick with CATURRA although he has a bit to find with some of the principals having landed a Newbury Listed contest (1200m) last time. The Hannon barn also have a good record in this race and the unbeaten GUBBASS represents them having won the Newbury Super Sprint (1000m) earlier this month, looking as if there would be more to come stepped up in trip. The best form belongs to ASYMMETRIC. A C&D winner on his debut he followed up over the same trip at Newmarket before being beaten a head in a Group 2 last time, just failing narrowly to maintain his unbeaten record. EBRO RIVER was fourth in that same race, but despite a couple of wins to his name he does still display signs of being a little wayward.

1 Asymmetric 2 Gubbass 3 Perfect Power

Race 5 - Goodwood Racecourse Patrons Nursery Handicap (1400m)

Another handicap in which Mark Johnston has traditionally done well, landing the contest three times in the last seven years, including a 1-2-3 in 2016. His pair HIGHLAND PREMIERE and WHITEFEATHERSFALL provide a good starting point and it would be a surprise if either were far away with the first-named looking the pick based on his nursery debut win last time over this same distance. Of the rest, ARDBRACCAN, a winner last time out, the unbeaten ADJUVANT and FAVOURITE CHILD make the most appeal. MAYFAIR STROLL has winning nursery form already in the book, along with ROBASTA, although the latter needs to prove himself over 1400m.

1 Highland Premiere 2 Mayfair Stroll
3 Adjuvant

OUR GUIDE TO THE REST OF THE ACTION

Race 6 - Tatler EBF Maiden Fillies' Stakes (1400m)

Of those who have had a previous outing, WILDERNESS GIRL showed promise finishing fourth to Ardbaccan (well fancied for the preceding nursery) at Newmarket over 1400m despite being given a fairly easy race. HELENE has two thirds to her name over 200m shorter and her experience should help her move forward with ROUGE ET NOIR having a similar profile and she should step forward again. Of the newcomers, SHOUTOUT has a useful profile from the Beckett stable who are going well currently with the Johnston newcomer VINTAGE FASHION also of interest. Her dam was a useful French two-year-old winner.

1 Wilderness Girl 2 Shoutout 3 Helene

Race 7 - World Pool Handicap (1000m)

TWILIGHT CALLS showed himself at home in a big-field handicap such as this last time when winning at Newmarket dropped to 1000m for the first time, travelling smoothly and winning in ready fashion. ISLE OF LISMORE has been in good form of late and is proven on a softer surface although he can race a little freely. EHRMANN is another contender who won last time out over this trip and he also won't be bothered by a softer surface and his consistency will make worthy of consideration. Tried over 1400m last time that distance was too far for FANTASY MASTER and he'll be much happier returned to this 1000m trip having been an unlucky loser at Ascot on his penultimate run when not getting the run of the race. THE PRINCES POET is still fairly unexposed at this level and he could make an impression.
