A compact field of New York-bred maiden claimers will kick off the Friday card and SAND CITY is the one to beat here if she runs back to her last start. She dropped into the claiming ranks for the first time and turned in a big effort for trainer Carlos Martin, finishing a close second. She'll be tracking the leaders along the outside today and will be in position to make her run turning for home. COREY Q needed her last one and finds herself in a softer spot today.

The top contenders are hard to separate in this contest for $16,000 maiden winners, so don't accept a real short price on any of these. NORTH EIGHT STREET has been facing better and has a big shot here dropping to the $16,000 level. Trainer Raymond Handal has done well with a limited number of runners and can add to his totals with this one. LITTLE MISS AMY adds blinkers today and figures to be on or near the lead from the start - solid chance.

Maidens will square off in this turf dash and SWITZERLAND looks to be the one to beat here if you throw out his last when he stumbled at the start. This Speightstown colt ran big in his first two starts, both on dirt, but is bred to like the turf and trainer Chad Brown wins at a 20% clip on the dirt-to-turf move. This colt will be on or near the lead from the start along the rail and will be the one to catch late. SETHARY showed some spark in his turf debut - capable.

An evenly matched group of New York-bred maidens will go in this 6-furlong sprint and since none of the ones that have raced have posted a figure of par or better for this class level, the firsters are live here. PAUSEFORTHECAUSE has been working well for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin who wins with 17% of his first timers. Leading rider Irad Ortiz (25% w/McLaughlin) has the mount. BIG EXPENSE is another firster than can't be counted out here.

This 1-mile turf Optional Claimer came up very tough with several having a shot at the top spot. After a troubled trip on Derby Day, FORGE came back a month later to win at Churchill Downs. He's been off for 2 months, but has worked steadily and has shown he's run well fresh in the past. This colt will settle off the leaders in the early going and come running late under Jose Ortiz. Edge in a close contest. NIGHT PROWLER split the field in the Poker Stakes and is a threat.

The top contenders are very close in this "two other than" Optional Claimer for New York-breds, so don't accept a real short price on anyone here. ELOWEASEL has turned in two 3rd-place finishes, the last in an open Allowance race, since returning from a long layoff and should be ready for a top effort today back in with state-breds. This City Zip filly will be up close from the start and try to take over late. BARREL OF DREAMS is back on the course she loves - chance.

Several merit attention in this contest for $25,000 claimers, so insist on a square price before plunging here. LIFELONG DREAMER stumbled at the start last time out and faded late to finish fourth. Claimed out of that race, he goes for new trainer Gary Gullo, who wins with 20% of his new acquisitions. This one has shown he can show speed or be rated and that versatility serves him well here. An overflow field has been drawn for today's turf finale for New York-bred maiden claimers and a case can be made for about half the field. CALCULATED RISKER has been a very consistent performer and will try to get over the hump today while dropping into the claiming ranks for the first time. This Into Mischief colt has tactical speed and will be running from just off the pace. JEGOS FIRE has been making progress and has a solid chance here.
