With Enticed and Free Drop Billy scratching in favor of the Gotham (G3), nine runners are expected in the Tampa Bay Derby (G2) starting gate and Flameaway will try to back up his 10-1 upset in the Sam F. Davis (G3). The Mark Casse-trained colt led wire to wire last time and figures to be forwardly-placed again, but Flameaway won't be the lone speed Saturday.

World of Trouble showed an affinity for the Tampa oval when recording a 13-length score in the 7-furlong Pasco on January 20 and registered a 101 BRIS Speed rating, which is tied for the best last-out number in the Tampa Bay Derby field. He's the speed of the speed and appears to be peaking presently for trainer Jason Servis, who wins at a 28% clip with runners making their first start at a route. A son of Kantharos, World of Trouble isn't being asked to negotiate the 1 1/4-mile Kentucky Derby distance – he just have to navigate 8 1/2 furlongs – and we'll predict another front-running score from the in-form colt.

Vino Rosso adds blinkers following a fast-closing third in the Sam F. Davis and will make his second stakes attempt for Todd Pletcher, who has captured the Tampa Bay Derby a record five times including the last three editions. The Curlin colt is certainly eligible to keep improving with a strong showing from just off the pace.

Untamed Domain will make his first dirt start for Graham Motion and the son of versatile 2011 Kentucky Derby winner Animal Kingdom should receive the right set-up for his late kick. Jose Ortiz will ride the graded stakes winner.

Flameaway and Tiz Mischief will be used underneath in vertical exotics.
