The Road to the Kentucky Derby runs through the Big Apple Saturday as nine 3-year-olds will square off in the $750,000 Wood Memorial (G2) at Aqueduct. One of seven major qualifiers, the Wood features the top two from the March 10 Gotham (G3) and shippers from the powerhouse stables of Bob Baffert and Todd Pletcher.

Enticed established himself as the favorite when posting a sharp tally in the Gotham, registering a field-best 104 BRIS Speed rating for the 2 3/4-length decision, and we like the dark bay colt right back in this spot. The well-bred son of Medaglia d'Oro showed signs of immaturity while displaying fine class in a trio of juvenile starts and appeared to resent being stuck inside when opening 2018 with a disappointing fourth in the Holy Bull (G3) at Gulfstream Park, but Enticed acted like a professional last time and we expect him to come on for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin now that his head appears to be on straight.

Old Time Revival proved no match for Enticed in deep stretch but ran well for second in the Gotham, netting a career-best 101 BRIS Speed rating while finishing four lengths clear of favored Free Drop Billy in third, and the improving colt will be setting pace again Saturday. He's run well in both starts at a mile and while the Ken Decker pupil has never been two turns, Old Time Revival is by Brethren (son of Distorted Humor) and has stamina on the dam side of his pedigree. With no other confirmed front-runners entered, Old Time Revival could prove difficult to get by in the stretch.

Restoring Hope will jump straight to stakes company for Bob Baffert off a visually-impressive maiden tally at Santa Anita. He's displayed fine tactical speed in a pair of route starts and is eligible to receive a favorable up-close trip stalking the speed from post 8 with Flavien Prat. He may not be good enough yet, but we'll look for the up-and-coming colt to grab a placing he can build upon.

Vino Rosso did not corner well but came on late for third in the Sam F. Davis (G3), but he couldn't duplicate the same rally after losing ground on the far turn of the Tampa Bay Derby (G2) stretch and wound up a well-beaten fourth. We liked the way the Curlin colt opened his career with a pair of convincing wins, and he's registered commendable BRIS Speed and Late Pace ratings, but a minor award is probably the best-case scenario here following a pair of disappointing efforts.
